

Studium Polski Podziemnej

PUMST

*„O Ty młodości mej stolico!
Z bruku Twego rad bym mieć kamień, Na którym krew i łza nie świecą!”*

*“O, city of my youth!
Give me but one stone from your streets,
That is not stained with blood and tears!”*

*Cyprian Kamil Norwid (1821-1883)
“Dedication to Warsaw” – 1866*

Supported by the Heritage Lottery Fund

and Polonia Aid Foundation Trust

Warsaw Rising 1944
60th Anniversary

Symposium and Exhibition

22 November 2004
9.00 to 16.00

at

The Polish Institute and Sikorski Museum
20 Princess Gate, London SW7 1PT

Organized by the Polish Underground Movement (1939-1945)
Study Trust

Program of lectures

09.00 Informal meeting of the participants

Morning session

Chairman: Dr K. Stoliński
PUMST London

09.30 Dr A. Suchcitz
Background to the events in occupied Poland (1943-1944).

10.00 Mr J. Bines
Operation 'Freston', British military mission to the Polish Secret Army (AK) in occupied Poland.

10.30 Coffee break

11.00 Mr S. Nowodworski
Black propaganda 1939-45

11.30 Mrs E. Maresch
The Secret Army (AK) intelligence operations
during the Second World War

12.00 Lunch break
and viewing of the exhibition

Afternoon session

Chairman: Dr. A. Suchcitz
IPMS London

13.30 Dr K. Stoliński
Financial help to the Secret State and its Army (AK) in occupied Poland.

14.00 Mr. Z. Bokiewicz Scout Field Post and its operation during the Warsaw Rising 1944.

14.30 Coffee break

15.00 Mr Z. S. Siemaszko
Radio communication during the Warsaw
Rising

15.30 Exhibition of the clandestine radio communication equipment constructed during the Second World War

16.00 End of the Session

(For their talks, lecturers are reminded to adhere strictly to the 25 minutes of the allocated period, followed by a 5 minutes question and answer session. Lecturers are also requested to provide printed text and a floppy disc of their contribution.)